

Subject: Last Chance for Early Bird Registration — WebCT European User Conference!

Greetings from WebCT,

There is only one week left to take advantage of the early-bird discount for the 4th Annual WebCT European User Conference in Barcelona, Spain! Many of your colleagues have already registered for this exciting event, which will take place at the Fira Palace Hotel on 6-9 February, 2005. Be sure to sign up by 13 December to save 75 Euros off the registration fee!

Check out the preliminary conference programme!

We received an excellent response to our call for programmes. Browse through the preliminary conference programme, which includes sessions on institutional e-learning strategies, effective instructional practices, student achievement and course success, and much more. We will also offer sessions in Spanish for the first time ever!

Don't miss the pre-conference workshops!

To enhance your professional development, sign up for one of our pre-conference workshops, offered in the morning and afternoon on Monday, 7 February. Topics include Teaching with WebCT Vista 3.0 \(hands-on\), Fundamentals of WebCT Campus Edition System Administration, Evaluating and Improving your WebCT Course, and more! We will also offer the WebCT Certified Trainer Workshop on Sunday, 6 February and Monday, 7 February.

Hear from compelling keynote speakers!

Carol Vallone, President and CEO of WebCT, will deliver our opening keynote presentation, followed by Dr. Curtis Bonk of the University of Indiana who will present on "Blogs, Borgs, or Just a Lot of Bonk: Online Learning from Out of this World". Our third keynote speaker will be Diana Laurillard, Head of the e-Learning Strategy Unit at the Department for Education and Skills in the United Kingdom.

For all general questions about the conference, please contact Carole Lindop, International Events Manager, at carole.lindop@webct.com. We look forward to seeing you in Barcelona!

Best regards,

Your Friends at WebCT
